Souls Of Deaf was originated by Sander Stappers (bass guitar) back in 2015 when he first started writing songs of what now will become the first Souls Of Deaf album "Fortune Favors The Bold". Partners in crime are Luc van Rens (guitar), Carl Vereijken (drums) and Francis Van Der Hoff (vocals). Early January 2018 these four musicians finished the recordings of their debut album at the Toneshed Recording Studio. Expect massive hard rock that on one hand harks back to the sound of the big names from the eighties, yet stays firmly rooted in the now. Souls Of Deaf harbors many decades of musical prowess since all of its members have been active in the heavy segment of the music business for years.
