After a short break, Forest Field return with their fifth full length album. Vocals were recorded in The Musik Room, USA. All other instruments were performed, recorded and produced by Peter Cox at Down the Road studio Netherlands. The album was also mixed and mastered there. Artwork by Blekkmark Design Studio.

Special guest is UK guitarist Vince O'Regan (Pulse, Legion, Bob Catley) , who adds his shredding to the tracks 4 (all solos) and 10 (solos 1, 2, 3 and 5).

ALBUM:

After the award winning Angels? album (best Rock album of 2015 on One World Music Radio), and the widely praised Lonely Desert album, Seasons is another release with a theme. The title already hints about that. Things might change, but the world keeps going round and the seasons keep following up on each other. No matter how crazy it gets around us!

Once again mixing instrumental tracks with melodic progressive rock (a.k.a. elaborate rock), Forest Field keep trying to push boundaries while staying true to their brand of music. Proof is for instance the track that preceded the album, the single edit of Change The World.

Their ability to combine melody with power and expert musicianship, is clearly shown throughout the whole of the album. Even when sounding heavier than ever before...
