Ever since starting their cooperation in 2015, Rock Company are delighted continue working with and to present another album from US singer and multi-instrumentalist Phil Vincent.

While Stigmata is album 23 under the Phil Vincent moniker, it is less of a solo album as usual. And where Vince O'Regan is a regular contributor, and Janne Stark returns for the second time, new name is Max Piccolo on drums and percussion. The mastering was again expertly handled by Jacob Hansen.

All this aside, it is no secret that Phil keeps pushing his boundaries and tries to raise the bar with every release. So besides doing a fabulous cover of Eleanor Rigby, Phil delivers another 9 tracks of his trademark heavy melodic rock tracks. Because even when his output and work ethic are unsurpassed, he never fails to deliver!

Tracks:

1. No End in Sight (4:55)
2. My Darkness (6:51)
3. Time (5:02)
4. My Life (4:25)
5. It Don't Matter Anymore (4:40)
6. Hideaway (3:47)
7. So Tired (6:48)
8. Don't Turn Your Back (3:50)
9. Eleanor Rigby (3:45)
10. Reason to Believe (4:03)

Press Quotes

"highly recommended for fans of Modern Melodic Metal"

"you can't stop to tap your foot while listening"

"Twenty albums into a solo career and Phil Vincent still pens memorable and catchy melodic hard rock tunes, and on this album he is adding a little more metal to the proceedings. Crank it up and rock!"

"Phil is out once again to prove that one man CAN do it all – and he succeeds"

"The mix of modern rock styles is impressive and all are well executed"
