Phil Vincent's new album "Master of Deception" (his 26th solo album!) takes the listener on a rollercoaster ride of emotions throughout the 11 song hard rock onslaught. "Jade Helm" opens the proceedings with bombast to spare. "Evil Wants" and "Path of Destruction" turn up the metal mayhem only to be brought to a melodic impasse by "Obsolete". The heaviness returns with "Grifter", "Wanted" and "Fight 'til the End" which leads into epilogue burner "New Day Dawning".

Mastered by Jacob Hansen, this album should be turned up to the maximum volume!

Press Quotes

"highly recommended for fans of Modern Melodic Metal"

"you can't stop to tap your foot while listening"

"Twenty albums into a solo career and Phil Vincent still pens memorable and catchy melodic hard rock tunes, and on this album he is adding a little more metal to the proceedings. Crank it up and rock!"

"Phil is out once again to prove that one man CAN do it all – and he succeeds"

"The mix of modern rock styles is impressive and all are well executed"
